

Community Rules

Last Updated February 17, 2021

This community is your space to connect, create, share, and inspire. It's up to us to keep the community a safe, accepting and encouraging space for everyone.

Below are the rules that will allow this to be a safe and productive community.

Be kind. We have a zero tolerance policy for negativity, bullying or toxic energy. Encourage and support one another in these settings. Treat everyone with love and acceptance. If you disagree or have an opposing viewpoint to share, do it with respect. If you can't be kind, be quiet. Violation of this rule is grounds for immediate and permanent removal from the community without a refund.

Be ethical and original. Don't copy, steal or share other people's intellectual property. Don't reuse or repurpose other members' content. If you have a question or case of infringement, write to the party directly. If you need further assistance, write us directly at support@CreateAbundantLife.com. We take these issues seriously and violation of this rule is grounds for removal from our programs or services and our community. If we find that you are here to take others' work as your own, this is NOT the place for you and you will be removed without refund.

Don't spam, mass mail, or violate privacy. Never email or contact other members without their permission, or add people to your email or newsletter list. Violating this is grounds for immediate removal without refund. If in doubt - write us at support@CreateAbundantLife.com.

Do your due diligence. If you decide to hire anyone or create any contractual relationship (verbally or written) with someone you've met through your membership in our programs or services, you do so at your own risk. Please do your due diligence and always get clear, written contracts and service agreements in place. While we love to believe everyone in the world is honest and ethical, that is just not the case. Create Abundant Life, LLC ("Create Abundant Life"), and/or their members, managers, employees and/or agents are not responsible for any loss of revenue, damages, breach of contract, or any other unfavorable circumstances of that relationship.

Facebook Group.

Create Abundant Life may choose to create a Facebook group or page for itself or ("Facebook Community"). If it creates a Facebook Community, this community is strictly for members of Create Abundant Life and respectively, who are in good standing. Create Abundant Life and the community manager(s) it may appoint are the moderators of the Facebook Community. Create Abundant Life and its agents reserve the right to review materials posted by users on the Facebook Community and to delete, remove, edit, or decline to post any materials in our sole discretion. Create Abundant Life and its agents reserve the right to terminate your access to the Facebook Community at any time without notice for any reason whatsoever.

We don't own Facebook. If Facebook changes their terms or decide to start charging for Facebook groups or pages, it may limit or end our ability to maintain a Facebook Community. Also, if these Community Rules are not honored and maintained, the Facebook Community may also be terminated at our sole discretion.

Community Purpose. The primary purpose for this community is to stay connected with fellow members, share ideas, support and encouragement. It is not a place to find customers or to recruit people to other programs.

This is not a place to get technical support for this website, program, or service.

This is also not a professional support group. It is also not a place for therapy. We encourage people to share support in a kind and healthy manner, but this is not a forum for deeper personal therapeutic services.

Opinions, advice and all other information expressed by members in discussions or comments are those of the author. You assume any risk if you rely on this information in your actions. You are strongly encouraged to seek professional advice for specific situations in your life and not to rely solely on advice or opinions given in this forum.

There may be times where posts on Facebook or the community forums disappear. You are welcome to repost if that happens. If your post was determined by our team to not be appropriate in our opinion based upon our guidelines, it may have been removed by an administrator See "What happens if You Don't Follow the Guidelines" below.
